

St Nick's, Allestree & St Paul's, Quarndon

March 2024

A Letter from Reverend Sarah Watson

This is my first official newsletter as Priest in Charge! I want to thank everyone for the very warm welcome, and for your patience as I learn names! It is great to finally be here, we have settled well as a family and certainly feel at home. I am looking forward to getting to know everyone more over the coming weeks and months.

I want to express once again my huge thanks to the fantastic and committed teams in the parishes who have supported the churches through the period of vacancy. We are blessed by the ministry exercised by so many in this place, truly representative of the Body of Christ in action, each playing their part.

Office Hours: Monday 9.15-4.15, Tuesday 9.15 - 2.45, Wednesday 1.15-3.15 and Friday 9.15 - 2.45.

The licensing service was a great occasion and certainly reflected the wonderful breadth of traditions across the four parishes. During the service and, as Rachael and I have said the legal declarations in each parish, one line strikes me, which is,

‘the church is called upon to proclaim the gospel afresh in each generation’.

Although the gospel is unchanging, how it is proclaimed afresh in this place, for this generation may look differently to what has gone before. We may find that exciting or scary, and often a mixture of the two! If we think of the huge cultural change over recent years, much of which has been sped up by the covid years, we face a new challenge. I am however excited by what God might do. The Holy Spirit is already at work and has gone before us, our call is to look for the signs of the Kingdom and join in on God missions.

As I write this, we have just celebrated Candlemas; we turn from the crib towards the cross. I am currently writing my Ash Wednesday sermon and one of the readings from Joel includes God’s cry to His people to return to Him, with all their heart. To return with fasting, weeping, and mourning, to rend their hearts, not their clothing.

This reminds us that all we are doing through this period of Lent is about the heart and drawing near to God rather than outward appearance.

But it also comes with an invitation.

Joel speaks of returning to the Lord, who is gracious and merciful, slow to anger, abounding in steadfast love, and relenting from punishment.

Although this period of Lent is about our repentance, our turning to the Lord, it is not out of fear but to a God who loves and knows us completely. God longs for us to return to him, so much so that Jesus came to 'pitch his tent among us' (for those of us who heard Phil's recent sermon!).

That is the invitation for us all during Lent to draw near to God and my prayer is that others would draw near too, which may mean that we 'pitch our tents' in unexpected places!

Parishioners of both churches may have abstained from chocolate during Lent. Many more of you may admit to being a chocolate lover. So, if you need any encouragement to enjoy chocolate confectionery over Easter, this poem might help...

The Chocolate Lover's Week by Paul Wiggins

On Monday, I choose one of my favourite caramel bars,
It helps me work, rest and play, so, of course, it's a Mars.

My husband regularly buys me a treat on Tuesday
As he knows his lady loves Cadbury's Milk Tray.

Wednesday, grandparent duties create stress, as my blood pressure may show
So I have a bubbly chocolate brand known as Aero.

By contrast on Thursday I have much time
on my own
And I enjoy the triangular prisms of the Toblerone.

I aim on Fridays to do 'as I please'
Which means buying a tube of colour-varied Smarties.

On Saturday, I want to eat this snack with all my meals
Well, who can resist the marshmallow centre of the Wagon Wheels?

And Sundays, I take time to relax and appreciate
The sweet mint chocolate thins known as After Eight.

Men's Breakfast/Day out

A lovely day was had by all during the steam train trip on the Great Central Railway last month. Everyone ate a lovely breakfast whilst also enjoying the wonderful views of the British countryside along the journey and some delightful conversations.

A big thank you to Phil for organising the trip.

St Nick's Prayer Circle

St Nick's have a prayer circle as part of their pastoral care set up. For those unfamiliar with the practice, it is simply a circle of people who are committed to phone along a chain when people request prayer, or a situation arises that needs communicating and praying for. You can rest assured that you are being covered in prayer when you approach someone who is on the contact list.

If you would like to be added to the prayer circle, please get in touch with the church office.

Pastoral Care Update.

Are you going through a difficult time at the moment and would like some emotional, spiritual or physical help? Then please let Gill Hannah or Clare Stacey know.

For various understandable reasons, many people find it difficult to reach out and ask for help but if you are aware of anyone who is struggling at the moment, please let us know. It could include for example, help with shopping, a home visit or merely a friendly chat on the phone. If we don't know, then it's difficult to help.

We are part of your church family and have been DBS checked and have completed the Diocesan Safe Guarding Training.
